

The Time is Now: Prepare your Special Needs Child for Future Success!

ATTEND OUR THREE-PART SERIES

Building Self-Esteem, Self-Awareness, and Self-Advocacy

Speaker: Rebecca Sheade, Elgin Pediatric Therapy, Inc.

Learn how to help special needs children understand their disabilities, maximize their abilities, self-advocate for themselves, and build self-confidence.

Tuesday, February 19, 2019 @ 6:30 PM

Poplar Creek Library Meeting Room 1

SSI, SSDI, HFS, DHS, PUNS – Understanding the Alphabet Soup

Speaker: Sherri Schneider, Family Benefit Solutions, Inc.

This interactive program will focus on the four major government benefits, PUNS, and waiver programs available for your special needs child. Learn to navigate through them with vital information and a timeline.

Tuesday, October 16, 2018 @ 6:30 PM

Gail Borden Public Library Meadows Community Rooms A-B

Help your Special Needs Child Develop Strong Relationships

Speakers: Joey Williams, M.S. & Matthew Marx, M.A., LPC, Advanced Behavior Solutions

Developing strong relationships with family members and caregivers is essential for your child, for the times when you are unable to be there. Learn how to build a solid foundation between your special needs child and their siblings, family members, and caregivers so they have the support they need now and in the future.

Tuesday, January 22, 2019 @ 6:30 PM

Gail Borden Public Library Meadows Community Rooms A-B

Special Education Program Series 2018/2019

Hosted by: The Citizens' Advisory Council, School District U-46 and Community Libraries
For more information, visit the CAC website at www.u46cac.org

